National Space Grant Directors Meeting
September 21-23, 2011
What’s in Wisconsin?

According to the quarter:

COWS
What’s in Wisconsin?

According to the chees...
What's in Wisconsin?

According to the corn

What’s in Wisconsin?
Other non-cow-related crops

Did You Know? - Wisconsin produces 57 percent of the cranberries in the United States.

Did You Know? - Wisconsin Ginseng farmers account for 95 percent of the total cultivated ginseng production of the United States.
What’s in Wisconsin?

The largest water park in the United States
What’s in Wisconsin?
14,000 lakes, 7,446 streams and rivers, 46 state parks, and plenty of outdoor activities to enjoy them.
What’s in Wisconsin?

38 WSGC Members committed to expanding aerospace research and educational opportunities.
WSGC Members Include...

Aerogel Technologies, LLC
WSGC Members Include...

The Experimental Aircraft Association
WSGC Members Include...
WSGC Members Include...

The 2nd largest public research institution in the US – The University of Wisconsin-Madison
WSGC Members Include...

The home of the Wisconsin Space Grant Consortium– The University of Wisconsin-Green Bay

Sharon waving from office

Sue by default
2011 Fall Conference

Located at KI Center and Hotel Sierra in Downtown Green Bay.
2011 Fall Conference

The hotel is two blocks from the downtown riverfront walkway. The walkway connects to the Fox River trail that follows the river south for 25 miles.
Family Fun

Heritage Hill State Park

Bay Beach Amusement Park and Wildlife Sanctuary

North East Wisconsin (NEW) Zoo

National Railroad Museum
Things to See in Green Bay
Things to See in Green Bay

Farmers Market on Broadway

2 Award winning Micro Breweries within 3 blocks of the hotel -- Titletown and Hinterland.
Food and Friends

There will be a reception at Lambeau field on Wednesday evening and a dinner at the EAA museum on Thursday.
Tues Day Trip to Door County
See You In Green Bay on September 21-23 2011!